

KYW-TV 3 – PHILADELPHIA, PA
QUARTERLY ISSUES PROGRAMS LIST
CBS BROADCASTING, INC.

July 1, 2012 – September 30, 2012

Attached are listings of broadcast segments, which in the station's judgment reflect KYW-TV3's most significant programming treatment of ascertained community issues.

PROGRAM INDEX

KYW-TV Eyewitness News – weekdays, 4:30am – 7:00am; 12noon – 12:30pm; 5:00pm – 6:00pm; 6:00 - 6:30pm; 11:00pm – 11:30pm; weekends, Saturday, 6:00am – 7:00am; 6:30pm – 7:00pm; 11:00pm – 11:30pm; and Sundays, 6:00am – 8:30am; 6:00pm – 6:30pm and 11:00pm – 11:30pm, regularly scheduled news broadcasts focusing on the latest current issues.

Eyewitness Newsmakers – A rotation of KYW-TV News Anchors provide an approximately 10-minute segment, including newsmaker interviews, which air during each Sunday morning newscast. Segments address current events on local and national fronts. The segments air in the 8:00am broadcast.

Talk Philly – weekdays, 12:00pm – 12:30pm; regularly scheduled lifestyle magazine program looking at a variety of topics that make the Philadelphia area so special. Hosted by Pat Ciarrocchi and Ukee Washington.

BUSINESS/ECONOMY/CONSUMER - Topics in this category include reports on plans by Amazon to start charging sales tax in Pennsylvania and Six Flags Great Adventure unveiled its strategy to become the largest theme park in the world.

Eyewitness News: 7/2—(:20), Hundreds of workers at Philadelphia's Sunoco refinery are celebrating as they will not be losing their jobs, Sunoco will partner with The Carlyle Group to form a new company for management; 7/2—(:28), Philadelphia based drug maker Glaxo-Smith-Kline is paying $3 billion in fines for marketing drugs to treat conditions they weren't approved to treat and failing to report safety concerns; 7/13—(:25), Visa and MasterCard are forfeiting more than $7 billion to settle an anti-trust case due to swipe fees; 7/16—(:24), A battle is brewing in Mount Laurel over a proposed Wal-Mart Supercenter that would be located in the neighborhood; 7/19—(:21), The AARP says more than a million Americans over the age of 50 have lost their homes during the mortgage crisis; 7/19—(:15), Amazon plans to start charging sales tax in Pennsylvania in September; 7/24—(:30), Dozens of rallies are expected all over the country to demand an increase in the federal minimum wage to $9.80; 7/24—(:25), Jimmy Buffett and Governor Chris Christie are announcing the addition of a Jimmy Buffett's Margaritaville Complex at the Resorts Casino Hotel on the Jersey boardwalk; 7/30—(:24), Lobster prices drop to their lowest point in 40 years; 8/6—(:16), Shares of Best Buy shot up as much as 20% after founder Richard Schulze said he wants to buy the company and make it private; 8/9—(:12), Starbucks is partnering with the mobile payment start-up, "Square" allowing customers to pay for their drinks with their phone; 8/10—(:07), More than 20,000 workers will gather at Eakins Oval in Philadelphia for the "Workers Stand for America" rally; 8/13—(:20), The South Jersey Transportation Authority is targeting drivers who owe more than $200 in unpaid tolls, the result could end in a suspension of your vehicles registration; 8/13—(:25), In the last two weeks, gas price have increased 18 cents in New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware due to recent refinery problems and high oil prices; 8/16—(:21), Two Powerball tickets worth a million dollars each were sold in Berks County and Burlington County; 8/20— (:19), Walmart will bring back its layaway program to make easier for customers to pay for holiday gifts; 8/24— (:14), There is one beach town in South Jersey planning some special events to keep tourism intact through the Labor Day holiday; 8/31— (:26), Six Flags Great Adventure unveiled its plans to become the largest theme park in the world; 8/31 — (:12), A group of gamblers will be allowed to cash in about a million dollars worth of chips won in an Atlantic City card game; 9/4— (:20), A new survey shows the tooth fairy is shelling out more money than ever before for loose teeth, the new average is three dollars per tooth; 9/6 — (:19), Three local ACME grocery stores will close by the end of the year; 9/12—(:16), Angry consumers protest at a local Lukoil stations over gas prices; 9/12—(:08), Today Apple debuts the iPhone 5; 9/13—(:15), The number of Americans filing for unemployment jumped to the highest level in two months; 9/13—(:22), The Federal Reserve plans to release more stimulus dollars; 9/16—(:30), Gas prices continue to climb in mid-September; 9/17—(:17), Hotels are boosting their bottom line with hidden additional fees; 9/19—(:20), Hershey officially opened the world's most technologically advanced chocolate plant today; 9/24—(:22), NJ State Assembly approved a bill that gives lotto winners the option of staying anonymous for one year; 9/25—(:18), US Airlines is purportedly collecting more in checked baggage fees than ever before; 9/27—(:21), Delaware Valley's largest hunger relief organization announces plans to open its first nonprofit grocery store; 9/29—(:20), PECO utility prices are slated to increase 21.5 percent.

CRIME - Topics in this category include reports on a suspected serial predator posing as a Philadelphia Police Officer and a threat against President Obama which is being traced to our area.

Eyewitness News: 7/5—(:18), An investigation is underway for a triple shooting that occurred during the Philadelphia Fourth of July celebration; 7/8—(:06), Philadelphia patrolman killed on his way home from work by a driver going the wrong way on the highway; 7/9—(:22), Shots ring out at a Delaware soccer tournament leaving three dead, police have charged two suspects with murder; 7/10—(:19), A 45-year-old man crossing an Atlantic City street in an electric wheelchair was struck and killed in a hit and run, police are still looking for suspects; 7/11—(:24), After following a blood trail overnight officers bust a million dollar marijuana operation in Oxford Circle; 7/15—(:18), Hymie's Deli in Lower Merion was robbed by three masked gunmen, the men stole cash and personal items; 7/16—(:15), An off duty police officer in Philadelphia was struck and killed while riding his bicycle, the crash may have been intentional; 7/16—(:21), A Gloucester County man is under arrest for posing as a police officer and attempting to pull people over on the AC Expressway; 7/17—(:21), Police are on the look for four 14-year-old boys who allegedly raped a 12-year-old girl inside a recreation center in Kingsessing; 7/17—(:23), A search is underway for the suspects in the shooting death of Sebastian Nunez, a luxury cab driver from North Philadelphia who was shot in the face; 7/25—(:06), Two teenage brothers are killed in Overbrook Park in a drug deal gone bad; 7/30—(:04), Three minors are under arrest for vandalizing 15 school busses in New Castle; 8/3—(:29), Investigators are sounding an alert about a suspected serial predator posing as a Philadelphia Police Officer; 8/6—(:20), A Bucks County music teacher is expected to turn himself in to police facing charges of having inappropriate contact with students, eight victims have been identified so far; 8/7—(:18), Eight people are accused of defrauding Comcast and stealing $2 million; 8/7—(:25), Parents are on alert in Skippack, Montgomery County after an attempted child luring of an 8-year-old boy; 8/13—(:27), Black clergy and the NAACP are calling for an investigation after a deadly police-involved shooting; 8/15—(:20), Police in New Jersey are searching for suspects that broke into dozens of storage units in Maple Shade where 72 units were ransacked at the Public Storage Complex on Fellowship Road; 8/16—(:05), The so-called Kensington strangler is convicted of raping and murdering three women; 8/18—(:25), Officer Moses Walker, junior is shot to death while leaving his overnight shift in an apparent robbery; 8/20—(:17), Philadelphia Police respond to a call of a suspicious device in West Philadelphia; 8/20—(:22), A Delaware Daycare Center is shut down and three workers are arrested after police say they forced toddlers to fight; 8/23—(:19), Authorities released a Camden mother's rambling 9-1-1 call moments after she decapitated her young son; 8/24—(:24), Lower Merion police need help finding a woman wanted for taking a rare and priceless piece of art, a porcelain bust of Benjamin Franklin worth in excess of three million dollars; 8/29—(:16), Police are looking for clues after finding a young woman's body in a corn field in Perkiomenville; 8/30—(:20), A crime unfolded on the Campus of Cabrini College in Radnor Township, Delaware County. Police say a man exposed himself to students; (:24), Police in West Whiteland Township are looking for several suspects accused of trying to photograph women in fitting rooms or up their skirts; 8/31 – (:17), A New Jersey supermarket employee opened fire killing two of his co-workers then killed himself; 9/4 – (:21), Police are looking for a man accused of raping a women in the Feltonville neighborhood; 9/4 – (:24), Police believe a deadly crash in Bensalem happened while 2 drivers were racing. Two people were thrown from the vehicle before it burst in to flames, killing a woman trapped in the back seat; 9/5 – (:21), Philadelphia Police are investigating a threat against President Obama which is being traced to North Philadelphia; 9/11—(:25), A threatening note left in the local Boeing plant, but a search yielded nothing out of the ordinary; 9/13—(:24), A man accused of trying to carry explosives on board at Philadelphia International Airport makes first court appearance; 9/13—(:20), Montgomery County Police Officer Brad Fox was shot and killed in the line of duty; 9/14—(:26), A SEPTA driver is attacked by a knife wielding passenger; 9/17 – (:24), A warning for women, police are searching for a suspect in a sexual assault in Philadelphia's Old City neighborhood; 9/17 – (:29), Convicted child molester Jerry Sandusky will be sentenced next month; 9/18 – (:06), In Mercer County, a Robbinsville Police Officer is charged with assaulting a disabled woman and her four year old son.

CULTURE - Topics in this category include reports on the “Made in America” Festival along the Ben Franklin Parkway during Labor Day weekend and the Rodin Museum reopens again to the public after a yearlong renovation.

Eyewitness News: 7/5—(:14), Jeff & Christina Lurie, owners of the Philadelphia Eagles, announce they are getting a divorce; 7/9—(:20), “Laugh for the Cure” was held tonight in center city Philadelphia to raise money for breast cancer research; 7/10—(:21), Jane Golden was presented with the Edna S. Tuttleman award by the “Jewish Family and Children’s Service of Greater Philadelphia” for the Philadelphia’s Mural Arts Program; 7/13—(:19), After a yearlong renovation, the Rodin Museum opens again to the public; 7/21—(:18), R&B singer Brandy entertained hundreds along Penn’s Landing at the Global Fusion Festival; 7/24—(:29), Philadelphia native Sherman Hemsley, known to the world as George Jefferson, has died at the age of 74; 7/25—(:09), The Philadelphia Phillies lock up Cole Hamels for six years in a deal worth $144 million; 7/27—(:20), Philadelphia radio icon Joe “Butterball” Tamburro passed away this morning at the age of 70; 8/16—(:20), The Philadelphia Zoo is allowing animals to explore new realms; 8/17—(:21), The 51st Annual Philadelphia Folk Festival is underway in Schwenksville, Montgomery County. This is the largest and longest running festival of its kind in the country; 8/19—(:15), The Festival of India was held on Penn’s Landing in Philadelphia; 8/20—(:22), Jay-Z’s “Made in America” Festival Labor Day weekend starts to set-up in the city today; 8/23—(:19), Philadelphia’s first ever “Dinner En Blanc” gathered thousands of participants decked out in white at the secret meeting location; 8/25—(:19), Hundreds turned out for the Third Annual Philly Naked Bike Ride; 8/27—(:21), Phillies pitcher Cole and Heidi Hamels hosted the “Diamonds and Denim Charity Event” at the Crystal Tea Room in Center City. The fundraiser benefits Philadelphia schools and education in the African Country of Malawi; 8/27—(:14), Local native Bradley Cooper returns to Philadelphia to premiere his new movie “The Words” at the Prince Music Theatre; 9/2—(:12), The final night of the “Made in America” Festival rocked out on the Ben Franklin Parkway in Philadelphia. Thousands attended the two day concert; 9/7—(:18), The nation’s first museum dedicated to pizza is now open in Philadelphia; (9/13)—(:19), Boxing great Muhammad Ali will receive the Liberty Medal in Philadelphia; (9/17)—(:20), 225th Anniversary of the signing of the Constitution; (9/20)—(:13), A giant, interactive 3-D light show known as “Open Air” illuminates the Ben Franklin Parkway tonight; (9/20)—(:18), Portraits of more than 150 influential Philadelphians along the walls of Walter D. Palmer Leadership Charter School; (9/21)—(:06), A Halloween tradition returns to the Eastern State Penitentiary in the form of “Terror Behind the Walls”; (9/26)—(:20), A sneak peak at the Opera Company of Philadelphia production of “La Boheme”.

ELDERLY - Topics in this category include reports on the attack of an elderly man inside a SEPTA elevator and a home invasion of an elderly woman by pre-teens.

Eyewitness News: 7/31—(:13), A local fire chief is being called a hero after running into a burning house with no equipment to save the life of an 102-year-old woman; 8/2—(:19), An elderly man is attacked inside a SEPTA elevator; 8/4—(:23), A 66-year-old woman is severely beaten and left for dead on a West Philadelphia sidewalk; 8/6—(:17), A home invasion has Philadelphia police looking for pre-teens that beat down a 51-year-old woman with some unusual items, including a plunger; 8/15—(:15), 100 pre-selected low income seniors got a free box fan at the Office of the State Representative in Philadelphia’s Cedarbrook neighborhood.

ENVIRONMENT - Topics in this category include reports on the water main breaks throughout our area and several major beach closures due to possible sewage spills.

Eyewitness News: 7/3—(:16), Day six of a heat wave claims another life, the fourth of heat related deaths this year; 7/5—(:10), A large forest fire in South Jersey has charred about 220 acres so far in the Wharton State Forest; 7/23—(:28), A water main break causes residents of South Philadelphia to evacuate, cleanup will take days; 7/27—(:09), Rough cleanup today after last night’s severe weather in Philadelphia’s Roxborough neighborhood; 7/29—(:12), Heavy rain caused flooding in some parts of the Jersey Shore today, the streets are flooded in Sea Isle City; 8/2—(:20), A water main break in New Jersey causes a large sink hole in Cherry Hill; 8/3—(:16), A family of four, including two children, are struck by lightning in Delaware; 8/6—(:20), No swimming allowed on the Ocean City beach between 8th and 9th streets because of a sewage leak; 8/7—(:21), A new dredging contract is signed to deepen the Delaware River to 45-feet which will give the region an economic boost by allowing larger cargo ships to the Port of Philadelphia; 8/13—(:23), Third major beach closing in three weeks, Ocean City beaches are closed due to a possible sewage spill; 8/16—(:23), A seven-foot shark was caught by a New Jersey man right off the shore of Ocean City; 8/23—(:22), A photographer recorded a video of a shark feeding frenzy last week near Island Beach State Park in New Jersey; 8/26—(:15), Heavy rains resulted in flooding in parts of Delaware; 9/4—(:07), Funnel clouds show a trail of damage left behind from another round of storms in South Jersey; 9/5—(:19), Clean up from Tornado damage is continuing in Mount Ephraim, Camden County; 9/20—(:17), Nearly 25 homes are without water tonight because of a water main break in Allentown, Lehigh County.

GOVERNMENT - Topics in this category include reports on major changes underway at Philadelphia's Department of Human Services and the controversial voter ID law.

Eyewitness News: 7/2—(:24), New Jersey Governor Chris Christie vetoes a tax increase on millionaires; 7/9—(:30), President Obama is calling for a one year extension on tax-cuts for everyone making less than $250 thousand; 7/12—(:20), A federal judge blocks Philadelphia's ban on serving food to homeless people in outdoor spaces; 7/19—(:26), New Jersey Governor Chris Christie signs a bill requiring drug treatment for non-violent offenders instead of prison time; 7/24—(:26), The FBI raided the house of NJ Mayor Tony Mack seeking evidence of bribery, fraud, extortion, and money laundering; 7/25—(:13), Vice President Joe Biden was in Philadelphia today speaking to the fire fighters across the nation; 7/26—(:24), NJ Governor Chris Christie says he'll think about running for president in the 2016 election; 7/27—(:25), Obama and Romney are making a big push for the Jewish vote, which is especially important in the states of Pennsylvania and Florida; 7/31—(:45), NJ Assemblyman and former Washington Township Mayor Paul Moriarty is defending himself after being cited for driving under the influence; 8/2—(:19), Pennsylvania Governor Tom Corbett is stepping down as chairman of the Delaware River Port Authority; 8/8—(:18), First Lady Michelle Obama is coming back to the Philadelphia area to campaign, she will hold rallies in Upper Dublin and Bethlehem; 8/9—(:25), The Pennsylvania Inter-Governmental Cooperation Agency will not approve Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter's five year financial plan as it is written; 8/13—(:27), A state ID Law will be decided this week by a Judge in Harrisburg to prevent voter fraud; 8/14—(:27), New Jersey Governor Chris Christie will deliver the keynote address at the Republican National Convention; 8/16—(:28), Challengers of Pennsylvania's new voter ID law take their fight to the State Supreme Court; 8/20—(:19), Republican Vice Presidential Candidate Paul Ryan visits Pennsylvania for the first time; 8/24—(:14), Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter will speak at the Democratic National Convention next month; 8/27—(:30), CNN reports the former longtime Pennsylvania Senator Arlen Specter is battling against a serious form of cancer; 8/28—(:21), The Pennsylvania voter ID law is starting today; 9/2—(:17), Vice President Joe Biden made stops in Pennsylvania and showed support to President Obama; 9/10—(:10), The Mayor of Trenton is out on bail, facing corruption charges; 9/13—(:22), Pennsylvania's controversial voter ID law will be subject of a state Supreme Court hearing. Each voter would have to show a valid photo ID before going into the booth starting November 6th; 9/13—(:18), Opposition to Pennsylvania's voter ID law is mounting; 9/15—(:25), Efforts continue to educate voters about Pennsylvania's controversial voter ID law. Members of the National Coalition of 100 Black Women distributed fact sheets in North Philadelphia; 9/18—(:23), The Pennsylvania Supreme Court sends the controversial voter ID law case back to a Lower Court; 9/19—(:27), Tempers flare during a town hall meeting featuring Pennsylvania Governor Tom Corbett at the Philadelphia Art Museum; 9/22—(:22), First Lady Michelle Obama's brother is in Philadelphia rallying supporters; 9/25—(:20), A new poll in New Jersey finds President Obama holding a double-digit lead over Republican challenger Romney; 9/26—(:17), The Pennsylvania Turnpike is facing mounting red ink; 9/28—(:19), Romney is attending a private fundraiser at the Union League in center city Philadelphia; 9/30—(:22), About 80 members of Mother Bethel Church in Philadelphia traveled to congregations from South Philadelphia to Lancaster for a voter education campaign.

Newsmakers: 7/1 – (13:20), The U.S. Supreme Court has handed down its long-awaited verdict on President Obama's Health Care Overhaul. Dr. Craig Wax, a family physician and Michael Salmanson, an attorney with experience in health litigation, discuss the decision; 7/8 – (10:40), The Washington Post labels Pennsylvania one of ten states that could determine whether Republicans hold control of the House of Representatives. Among the Republicans seeking re-election 7th District Congressman Patrick Meehan; 7/15 – (11:35), The boundaries are redrawn in Pennsylvania's 7th Congressional District. What now covers most of Delaware County and part of Montgomery County will cover parts of Delaware, Montgomery, Berks, Chester and Lancaster Counties. George Badey is the Democratic contender seeking to unseat incumbent Republican Patrick Meehan; 7/29 – (12:30), Unprecedented sanctions for Penn State University and the Philadelphia Catholic Church where the parallels are striking. The sexual abuse of children drove both actions. Former Philadelphia District Attorney Lynne Abraham and Attorney Marci Hamilton compare both cases; 8/5 – (10:45), Two years ago, Republicans recaptured the seat in the 3rd Congressional District which had been in their control for a century. This year, Congressman Jon Runyan is seeking his second term. The former Philadelphia Eagles Offensive Tackle is a member of the House Armed Services, Veterans Affairs, and Natural Resources Committees; 8/12 – (11:20), Philadelphia's Department of Human Services is undergoing some major changes. DHS Commission Anne Marie Ambrose explains; 8/19 – (10:00), The Presidential race may grab most of the attention on Campaign 2012. But voters are also choosing members of Congress. Former U.S. Marine Fighter Pilot Joe Rooney is seeking to unseat Pennsylvania Congresswoman Allyson Schwartz in the 13th District; 9/9 – (12:10), For decades, the ties that bind the United States and Israel have been strong not just in politics, but also in business, culture and friendship. Now, there's a change in diplomats at the Consulate General of Israel Office in Philadelphia. Yaron Sideman is Consul General for the Mid-Atlantic region, which includes Pennsylvania, Southern New Jersey and Delaware. He's a 17-year veteran of the Israeli Foreign Ministry and spent the last year studying at the Israel National Defense College which educates diplomatic and military leaders; 9/16 – (10:40), The stage is set for Delaware's U.S. Senate campaign. Republican Kevin Wade, a small businessman, explains why he's running; 9/23 – (8:10), Pennsylvania's 8th Congressional District race promises to be one of the most hotly-contested battles in Campaign 2012. Democratic Candidate Kathy Boockvar explains why she wants the job, and what her priorities will be if she's elected to Congress; 9/30 – (11:15), While Republican Presidential Nominee Mitt Romney was on the campaign trail in the Philadelphia Area, Pennsylvania Democratic Party leaders gathered at state headquarters in Philadelphia. Among them, Rep. Allyson Schwartz, who claimed Romney believes it's fair for middle class Americans to pay higher taxes than he does. Schwartz also talks about her re-election campaign.

HEALTH - Topics in this category include reports on major breakthroughs in the way doctors treat breast cancer and several outbreaks of the West Nile virus in our area.

Eyewitness News: 7/2—(:12), A new study suggests drinking a lot of coffee lowers your risk of developing the most common type of skin cancer; 7/4—(:21), The FDA has approved the first over-the-counter at home HIV test; 7/9—(:17), Babies who spend time around cats or dogs in their first year tend to be healthier and have stronger immune systems; 7/9—(:17), The discovery of an immune molecule could lead to new treatments for skin cancer; 7/12—(:20), A new study finds the average smoker will gain on average 11-pounds in the first year after quitting; 7/16—(:22), New findings show children with fillings with the chemical BPA have more social behavioral problems; 7/17—(:25), A new antibody treatment called Gammagard IVIG is showing promise in slowing the progression of Alzheimer's disease; 7/24—(:20), Vitamins C, E and selenium could help reduce the risk of getting pancreatic cancer; 7/25—(:18), A new study says tanning beds raise the risk of getting skin cancer by 20 percent; 7/26—(:19), New research finds giving birth at an older age may help reduce the risk of endometrial cancer, the most common gynecological cancer in the US; 7/30—(:21), A new study finds a link between women exposed to high magnetic fields while pregnant are more likely to have overweight or obese children; 8/6—(:22), A new study finds changing the type of videos games and TV your children watch can lead to a better night's sleep; 8/6—(:18), The State Health Department has just announced Pennsylvania now has its first case of West Nile virus this summer, at least four people have died in the U.S. so far this year; 8/10—(:20), A new strain of swine flu is on the rise, the Centers for Disease and Control reports more than 145 new cases this week; 8/13—(:18), According to a new pediatric study children who snore persistently and loudly are likely to have behavioral problems such as depression and hyperactivity; 8/13—(:19), Health officials confirm there are two human cases of West Nile virus reported in Delaware County; 8/15—(:20), Researchers show a chemical found in hand sanitizer and antibacterial soap could weaken the muscles in your hands; 8/16—(:25), A new study suggests that eating egg yolks may lead to plaque buildup in the arteries that is comparable to what's found in cigarette smokers; 8/16—(:22), New research show that chemotherapy during pregnancy does not appear to increase complications in newborns; 8/18—(:26), Harvard researchers found that evidence is fairly strong that coffee helps prevent type two diabetes and Parkinson's because of its antioxidants; 8/20—(:25), An antioxidant found in red wine and dark-skinned fruits could help improve balance and mobility; 8/21—(:22), Researchers in Europe found that being overweight can make your brain age much faster; 8/22—(:18), The CDC says it's seeing an outbreak of people with skin infections after getting a tattoo; 8/23—(:15), New research shows men who wait until later in life to become fathers may be run a high risk of having children with serious health problems, including autism; 8/24—(:20), The FDA says some tap water contains bacteria that is safe to drink, but it can cause dangerous infections in the sinus area; 8/29—(:20), Researchers in Sweden say men who eat chocolate are less likely to get strokes; 8/29—(:20), Researchers found hostile, aggressive and quick tempered people were twice as likely to face stroke risk; 9/3 —(:17), Irish researchers modified coconut oil with enzymes and find it kills bacteria that causes tooth decay; 9/4—(:08), Surgeons now have a promising new tool to help keep people dying from strokes, the tiny device was just FDA approved and already saving lives; (9/5)—(:09), New research shows professional football players may be at a higher risk of dying from diseases such as Alzheimer's and ALS; 9/10—(:22), A new study shows marijuana use may increase the risk of testicular cancer; 9/13 – (:26), The Food and Drug Administration says people have gotten serious skin injuries while using certain over-the-counter pain relievers applied to the skin to relieve muscle and joint pain; 9/14 – (:19), Researchers have discovered genetic evidence of a link between cholesterol and cancer; 9/17 – (:14), A study published in Pediatrics says children and teens now consume as much sodium as adults; 9/24 – (:19), The American Academy of Pediatrics is issuing another urgent warning for parents about trampolines and their children, telling them keep the youngsters off of them; 9/24 – (:25), A new study could lead to major breakthroughs in the way doctors treat breast cancer; 9/28 – (:25), A new study found couch potatoes may have an increased risk for chronic kidney disease.

MINORITY - Topics in this category include reports on a racial discrimination suit by a Philadelphia man against the Hooters restaurant chain and a settlement by Wells Fargo against allegations that it discriminated against minority borrowers.

Eyewitness News: 7/12—(:25), Wells Fargo agreed to pay $175 million dollars to settle allegations that it discriminated against minority borrowers; 8/1—(:21), Students participating in the Emma Bowen Foundation program in our area attended a special reception and workshop at the CBS 3/CW Philly studios; 8/2—(:13), A Camden County couple is suing a longtime Lindenworld Borough councilman saying he's continuously harassed them because they are an inter-racial couple; 8/4—(:14), Same sex couples take their turn in the food fight at Chick-fil-A by kissing outside the fast food chain; 8/10—(:24), 92-year-old May's Landing, New Jersey resident Bill French was honored as one of the first marines to break the color barrier, he was presented with the Congressional Gold Medal; (8/16)—(:12), The Justice Department has settled a race discrimination case against the Valley Swim Club on Huntingdon Valley; 9/7— (:16), The Wet Seal Clothing chain at The King of Prussia Mall is now at the center of a class action lawsuit which contends race bias; 9/11—(:23), A Philadelphia man is suing the Hooters restaurant chain for racial discrimination.

PUBLIC SAFETY - Topics in this category include reports on a roof collapse in the King of Prussia Mall and a SEPTA passenger tips of police to a man carrying guns and ammo.

Eyewitness News: 7/2—(:26), Members of the Occupy Philadelphia Movement tied up traffic as they marched throughout the streets of center city; 7/3—(:15), A wolf-dog has been caught in Pennypack Park; 7/16—(:19), Ford is recalling more than 8,000 2013 Ford Escapes due to carpet padding that may affect the brake pedal; 7/18—(:18), The Limerick power plant is partially shut down because of an electrical malfunction; 7/19—(:21), Opposition is growing to a proposed methadone clinic in Philadelphia's Mayfair neighborhood; 7/24—(:25), Stroller company Peg Perego is recalling 223,000 strollers after the death of a six month old boy who was strangled while in the stroller; 7/30—(:16), One woman is injured after a partial roof collapse in the King of Prussia Mall; (:20), Wegmans of Collegeville, Downingtown and Allentown are recalling six of its prepared food items, chopped or diced onions used in the recipes may be contaminated with Listeria; (:18), Hyundai is recalling their 2007-2009 Santa FE SUVs and Sonata sedans because of possible airbag problems; 8/1—(:16), A SEPTA subway passenger tips off police to a man carrying an AK-47 and lots of ammo; 8/6—(:19), Residents, community leaders, and public officials gathered for a “Stop the Violence” rally in South Philadelphia, the event is part of “Peace Week” dedicated to helping end violence; 8/8—(:20), Camden Mayor Dana Redd says she will begin breaking apart the city’s police force, all 270 Camden City police officers could lose their jobs by 2012; 8/10—(:08), Sliced apples distributed to fast-food chains nationwide are among packaged products being recalled due to possible Listeria contamination; 8/13—(:15), Police say a Philadelphia Water Department employee was shocked while doing routine work on a service line; 8/14—(:21), Part of the Schuylkill Expressway is open after an overturned tractor trailer shut it down for hours; 8/15—(:22), About 4 million Bumby Baby Chairs are being recalled due to reported skull fractures; 8/17—(:19), A rabid bat was removed from a home in Gloucester Township, New Jersey; 8/21—(:12), A West Philadelphia neighborhood is being overrun by rats; 8/22—(:15), An overturned tractor trailer ties up traffic on the Walt Whitman Bridge; 8/27—(:08), South Jersey Transportation Authority crews are removing Emergency Call Boxes along the highway; 8/27—(:24), A Chester County school bus goes up in flames with children in it; 8/29—(:19), SEPTA’s new police chief reveals new plans to keep passengers safe; 9/1—(:22), 600,000 “Mr. Coffee” coffeemakers are under recall for a dangerous malfunction; 9/6—(:14), A US Airways flight is forced to return to Philadelphia after a dangerous situation is reported, which later turned out to be a hoax; 9/10—(:10), School bus concerns are driving parents to demand change in Bristol Township, Bucks County; 9/12—(:18), A 13 years old is hit by a SEPTA Warminster regional rail train; 9/21—(:16), A house crumbles to the ground in Philadelphia’s Point Breeze neighborhood with 2 people inside; (:18), A small plane crashes into a fence at the Camden County airport in Winslow Township; 9/24—(:24), A propane tanker fire that forced the evacuation of residents in Tinicum Township has been sealed.

RELIGION - Topics in this category include reports on a prayer rally at Independence Mall and Yom Kippur celebrations.

Eyewitness News: 7/2—(:19), Anita Guzzardi, former executive of the Philadelphia Archdiocese, pleads guilty to stealing more than $900,000 dollars from the church; 7/15—(:08), The Archdiocese of Philadelphia says a priest who was suspended after federal agents seized his computer has been found unsuitable for ministry for selling life coaching and get rich quick ideas online; 7/23—(:18), Prosecutors in Philadelphia will retry Father James Brennan on an attempted rape charge, a jury deadlocked last month; 7/27—(:18) Reverend Andrew McCormick is accused of sexually assaulting a young altar boy; 8/23—(:16), Someone stole a gold painted statue of Jesus from St. Paul’s Parish; 9/25—(:18), Jews here and around the world are marking the most solemn day of the year: Yom Kippur; 9/29—(:14), The “America for Jesus 2012” prayer rally draws hundreds to Independence Hall.

WOMEN - Topics in this category include reports on breastfeeding in public and free health services as part of the President's Affordable Care Act.

Eyewitness News: 7/16—(:26), Two former waitresses at Parx Casino are filing lawsuits after they lost their positions for becoming pregnant; 7/17—(:17), Love Park was the site of a press conference earlier today organized by republican women; 8/1—(:15), 47 million American women can now get free health services, including birth control as part of the President's Affordable Care Act; 8/20—(:22), For the first time in 80 years, Augusta National Golf Club is letting two women join; 9/24—(:11), Breastfeeding in public is legal in Pennsylvania, but new mothers in a Bucks County community want to be able to feed their babies without harassment.

YOUTH - Topics in this category include reports on the First Lady's "Let's Move" campaign to end childhood obesity and a new app which attempts to prevent teenagers from texting and driving.

Eyewitness News: 7/3—(:19), The new Smartphone app "Otter" is attempting to prevent teenagers from texting and driving, the app disables the texting feature of a phone while the car is in motion; 7/18—(:25), Michelle Obama was in Philadelphia promoting her "Let's Move" campaign to end childhood obesity; 8/2—(:25), The Philadelphia School District released details on possible cutbacks to help their financial crisis, some suggestions could be closing up to 77 schools over the next five years; 8/17—(:21), Jill Biden paid a visit to children at Guardian Angel Child Care Center in Wilmington; 9/27—(:21), College loan debt has soared to a record high in the U.S. with the young and poor being hit the hardest.